Medicare Exchanges For Retirees

The Connector Model – We offer a wide variety of individual Medicare plans in addition to our group plans through an exchange model that helps transition retirees from group to individual plans. This option is most effective if you wish to endorse certain Medicare products while eliminating your retiree coverage subsidy or to provide the subsidy through a retiree account

- Unique offering that helps retirees choose the individual product (MA, PDP and/or Medicare supplement plan) that best fits their needs. Employers may elect to contribute toward premium.
- Employer contribution optional but not required.
- RRA available to groups with over 1,000 eligible
